Housing Assistance

Although the School does not maintain dormitory facilities, students who are relocating and must arrange their own housing may contact the student services department to request a list of community resources.