DH215 : DENTAL PHARMACOLOGY AND PAIN CONTROL

This course is designed for dental hygiene students to study the physiology, interactions and effects of drugs. Emphasis is placed on antibiotic prophylaxis used in dentistry, antifungal agents, local anesthetics and the management of pain control within the dental office.

| | |
|---|---|
| Quarter Credits | 3.5 |
| Clock Hours | 40 |
| Lab Hours | 10 |
| Lecture Hours | 30 |
| Prerequisites | DH210 |