DH250 : COMMUNITY DENTAL HEALTH I

This course gives students a basic orientation to the principles of community oral health planning and practice. The hygienist's role as an educator and resource person for the community will be emphasized. Students will expand their knowledge and skills necessary to promote health care in the community.

Quarter Credits	3
Clock Hours	50
Lab Hours	40
Lecture Hours	10
Prerequisites	DH240