ICS100 : INTRODUCTION TO CRAFT SKILLS

Students will be introduced to basic workplace safety, OSHA safety regulations, construction hand tools, power tools, and construction drawing. The basic rigging techniques used to move material and equipment from one location to another on a job site is introduced. An introduction and review of the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) hand signals will be given. Proper materials handling techniques and procedures will be explained. Basic communication and employability skills will be reviewed.

Clock Hours	60
Lab Hours	30
Lecture Hours	30
Semester Credits	4
Prerequisites	None